		January 04	October 03	January 03

NET MIGRATION	(January to December)		2003	2002

	Total		3,873	2,442

Manitoba's total population was estimated at 1,165,944 persons as of January 1, 2004, up 1,809 persons from the October 1, 2003 estimate. Population growth continues on an annual basis, with Manitoba' s increase since January 1, 2003 estimated at 7,584 persons, or 0.65%. Manitoba' s annual increase of 0.65% is the best since 1986 (0.87%). A large portion of Manitoba' s estimated population gain during 2003 was the result of immigration.

We recorded a net loss of 2,253 persons to other provinces through interprovincial migration in 2003, a difference of 415 persons from the net loss of 1,838 persons in 2002. In 2003, Manitoba gained population on a net basis chiefly from Nova Scotia (78) and New Brunswick (56), while most of the losses were to Alberta (-1,198), British Columbia (-850), Saskatchewan (-141) and Quebec (-113).

Interprovincial migration is generally offset to some degree by other types of population movement (international migration, Canadian citizens returning from abroad, non-permanent residents and Canadians temporarily abroad). When these other forms of population movement were combined with interprovincial migration, Manitoba recorded an overall net migration gain of 3,873 persons in 2003. This is a 58.6% improvement over 2002' s value of 2,442 persons. It is also the highest annual inflow since 1983 when it was 4,257 persons.

Net international migration in 2003 was 4,876 persons, up from 3,018 persons in 2002. This improvement is due to the increase in immigration that went from 4,622 persons in 2002 to 6,491 persons in 2003.

Manitoba's total population was estimated at 1,168,349 persons as of April 1, 2004, up 2,405 persons from the January 1, 2004 estimate. Population growth continues on an annual basis, with Manitoba's increase since April 1, 2003 estimated at 8,432 persons, or 0.73%. Manitoba's annual increase of 0.73% is the best since 1986 (0.86%). A large portion of Manitoba's estimated population gain during the first quarter of 2004 was the result of immigration.

We recorded a net gain of 172 persons from other provinces through interprovincial migration in the first quarter of 2004, a difference of 435 persons from the net loss of 263 persons in the first quarter of 2003. In the first quarter of 2004, Manitoba gained population on a net basis chiefly from Alberta (167), Ontario (98) and Newfoundland (57), while most of the losses were to Saskatchewan (-132), Quebec (-52) and New Brunswick (-33).

Interprovincial migration is generally offset to some degree by other types of population movement (international migration, Canadian citizens returning from abroad, non-permanent residents and Canadians temporarily abroad). When these other forms of population movement were combined with interprovincial migration, Manitoba recorded an overall net migration gain of 1,730 persons in the first quarter of 2004. This is a 105.5% improvement over the first quarter of 2003's value of 842 persons. This first quarter inflow is a 10.4% improvement over the closest first quarter inflow since 1972 of 1,567 persons in 1974.

Net international migration for the first quarter of 2004 was 1,288 persons, up from 794 persons in the first quarter of 2003. This improvement is due to the increase in immigration that went from 1,048 persons in the first quarter of 2003 to 1,542 persons in the first quarter of 2004.

Manitoba's total population was estimated at 1,170,268 persons as of July 1, 2004, up 2,766 persons from the April 1, 2004 estimate. Population growth continues on an annual basis, with Manitoba's increase since July 1, 2003 estimated at 8,716 persons, or 0.75%. Manitoba's annual increase of 0.75% is the best since 1986 (0.87%). A large portion of Manitoba's estimated population gain during the first half of 2004 was the result of immigration.

We recorded a net loss of 410 persons from other provinces through interprovincial migration in the first half of 2004, a difference of 949 persons from the net loss of 1,359 persons in the first half of 2003. In the first half of 2004, Manitoba gained population on a net basis chiefly from Quebec (134), Ontario (102) and Newfoundland (79), while most of the losses were to Alberta (-533), British Columbia (-108) and New Brunswick (-53).

Interprovincial migration is generally offset to some degree by other types of population movement (international migration, Canadian citizens returning from abroad, non-permanent residents and Canadians temporarily abroad). When these other forms of population movement were combined with interprovincial migration, Manitoba recorded an overall net migration gain of 3,559 persons in the first half of 2004. This is a little over double the first half of 2003's value of 1,777 persons. This first half inflow is a 30.6% improvement over the closest first half inflow since 1972 of 2,725 persons in 1983.

Net international migration for the first half of 2004 was 3,332 persons, up from 2,411 persons in the first half of 2003. This improvement is due to the increase in immigration that went from 2,853 persons in the first half of 2003 to 3,773 persons in the first half of 2004.

It should be noted that Statistics Canada has released revised components of population estimates for Canada, the Provinces and Territories. The revised estimates cover the time period from third quarter 2001 onward. This MBS report incorporates all revisions.

Table 6 presents the differences between the current population statistics contained in this report and those previously published by Statistics Canada for Table 1.

NET MIGRATION (January to October)	2004	2003

Total	5,217	1,977

Manitoba's total population was estimated at 1,173,164 persons as of October 1, 2004, up 2,896 persons from the July 1, 2004 estimate. Population growth continues on an annual basis, with Manitoba's increase since October 1, 2003 estimated at 10,161 persons, or 0.87%. Manitoba's annual increase of 0.87% is the best since 1985 (0.90%). A large portion of Manitoba's estimated population gain of 8,202 persons during the first three-quarters of 2004 was the result of immigration (5,822 persons).

We recorded a net loss of 599 persons from other provinces through interprovincial migration in the first three-quarters of 2004, a difference of 2,162 persons from the net loss of 2,761 persons in the first three-quarters of 2003. In the first three-quarters of 2004, Manitoba gained population on a net basis chiefly from Quebec (209), Ontario (169) and Nova Scotia (126), while most of the losses were to Alberta (-862), British Columbia (-376) and the Northwest Territories (-70).

Interprovincial migration is generally offset to some degree by other types of population movement (international migration, Canadian citizens returning from abroad, non-permanent residents and Canadians temporarily abroad). When these other forms of population movement were combined with interprovincial migration, Manitoba recorded an overall net migration gain of 5,217 persons in the first three-quarters of 2004. This is over double the first three-quarters of 2003's value of 1,977 persons. This first three-quarters inflow is an improvement of 402 persons over the closest first three-quarters inflow since 1972 of 4,815 persons in 1982.

Net international migration for the first three-quarters of 2004 was 4,790 persons, up from 3,747 persons in the first three-quarters of 2003. This improvement is due to the increase in immigration that went from 4,759 persons in the first three-quarters of 2003 to 5,822 persons in the first three-quarters of 2004.
